

New York State YOUTH ART MONTH Flag Design Contest 2024

The top design in each category: Elementary, Middle, and High School and an overall flag winner and honorable mentions will be picked

Student winners and their teachers will receive prizes from BLICK and Royal Brush

The overall winner will receive their design printed on a physical flag which can be hung in their school, home and/or community. As well, their design becomes the NYS YAM 2024 Flag to be hung at the National Art Educators Conference in April 2024!

Submitting teachers will be entered into a drawing for NYS YAM swag and giveaways
Top THREE teachers with the most submissions will receive a free YAM t-shirt

Winning and honorable mention designs will be featured on the NYS Youth Art Month social media pages

Designs and Paperwork are:

- Due: November 22, 2023
- Submitted in three ways:
 - In-person to the YAM Booth at the NYSATA Conference
 - Virtually: Check out the NYS YAM Website for a direct link
 - Snail Mail to Tracy Berges - see address on page 9

Design Guidelines

- Generate your artwork based on the 2023 YAM theme: "Dream in Art"
- Include the name of our state (New York) in the design
- Include the Youth Art Month National Logo (page 6 for examples and sizing)
- Make sure that any lettering or logo is away from the border
- Use color in your design
- Any media is accepted
- The flag needs to be proportional to 3 feet x 5 feet. This way it will reproduce well.
 - See the provided blank flag template. This template can be used, but is not necessary.
 - NO designs should be smaller than the template provided for a quality reproduction
- Have a Parent Release form signed and submitted with the entry
- NEW: Submission must be by the teacher, students cannot submit directly
 - Must include a filled out cover sheet
- Scan, mail or submit work along with the cover sheet by November 23rd
